

OH, MEXICO, OLD MEXICO

Oh, Mexico, Old Mexico,
We have to do it, you must know!
We are impelled into your strife
Where murder, rapine, blood is rife—
To prove thruout the world at large
The meaning of our ancient charge!

Oh, Mexico, Old Mexico,
By the shade of James Monroe!
Liberty and Justice true
Hand in hand must walk with you,
While the might of his forethot Shall preserve your land distraught!

Oh, Mexico, Old Mexico,
We've been patient, we've been slow
To both anger and to wrath
At conditions in our path
Of duty, now made plain
By the deeds that you sustain.

Oh, Mexico, Old Mexico,
We regret it must be so,
But heavy lie upon your head Blame for blood that must be shed!
For when swords leap from the shelf,
'Tis to save you from yourself!

Oh, Mexico, old Mexico,
The time has come for us to show
That this Western Hemisphere
Has no place for despot here, Nor tyrant bold, whose hands are red
With steaming blood ambition shed!

And Mexico, Old Mexico,
In the end if we must go To the Halls of Montezuma, Believe me! you will loom a —sight bigger now than—well,
When con carne's made in—!

POISON BY MISTAKE

Mrs. Oldham, wife of ranger Oldham, located at Grandview, took some bichloride of mercury tablets last week thinking that they were headache tablets. As soon as she discovered her mistake she took an emetic and phoned for a Dr. There happened to be one at the Grand Canyon and M. C. Smith who was there with his family at the time took the Dr. out to the station in his auto. Mr. Smith made the run and had the Dr. there in a very short time which no doubt did much to save the life of Mrs. Oldham. Later she was taken to Flagstaff and it is reported that she will soon be back home.

Colds

should be "nipped in the bud", for if allowed to run unchecked, serious results may follow. Numerous cases of consumption, pneumonia, and other fatal diseases, can be traced back to a cold. At the first sign of a cold, protect yourself by thoroughly cleansing your system with a few doses of Mr. Chas. A. Ragland, o-

"I have been using Thedford's Black-Draught for stomach troubles, indiges-be the very best medicine I ever used. It makes an old
